

Antek medical software products are developed with the end user in mind. Intuitive and easy to use, Antek solutions are designed to enhance productivity. All of our products incorporate financial management tools and provide low cost of ownership advantages. All of our medical office software office products are HIPAA compliant.

DAQbilling

Practice Management System

Fastest growing Practice Management System in the country

Quickly becoming the most popular system of its kind, the DAQbilling Medical Practice Management Software provides the medical community with comprehensive financial management capabilities at a price that is affordable -- even for new practices. DAQbilling, medical billing software, offers quick and easy functionality for scheduling, billing, reporting and scanning; while enhancing practice efficiency and profitability.

LabDAQ

Laboratory Information System

More labs run LabDAQ than any other LIS*

Developed over the course of 15 years with feedback from countless physicians and laboratory personnel, LabDAQ has become the nation's leading Laboratory Information System, used in over 2,000 sites nationwide. Opening new windows in flexibility, communication, security and value, LabDAQ offers outstanding functionality for reviewing lab results, validating quality control, ordering lab tests and managing patient records.

VISIONARY™ DREAM EHR

DREAM EHR is one of the most affordable Electronic Health Record software's available today. The system integrates with your practice management for a complete solution. Have real-time data access to patient demographics and clinical information at the point-of-care.